REPORTS.

On Education.

The Committee on Education respectfully present the following report:

De Pauw University.

Upon the unanimous petition of the Joint Board of Trustees and Visitors of the Indiana Asbury University its name is now changed to De Pauw University. Under the new name this well-known institution of learning bids fair to equal in the extent of its influence and usefulness any similar establishment for higher education in the West. During the present year the number of students in attendance is somewhat more than five hundred —a number which is likely to be largely increased next year.

Its board of instruction now numbers fifteen professors and instructors. At a recent meeting of its trustees Hon. A. C. Downey, late Judge of the Supreme Court, was elected Dean of the Law Department; Prof. W. F Yocum, President of the Fort Wayne College, was elected Principal of the Preparatory School and Professor of Normal Instruction.

The University has recently purchased a farm of one hundred and twenty acres, adjoining and partly within the city of Greencastle, which is to be laid out into a park. Within it will also be erected buildings for various purposes. During the present season Robert McKim, of Madison, will erect upon a fine elevated site on the farm an astronomical observatory. Other buildings are to be erected this season adjacent to the present University buildings. These are (1) one dormitory to accommodate fifty ladies; (2) one dormitory to accommodate one hundred gentlemen; (3) a building for the Law School; (4) a building for the Theological School.

Additional professors are to be added to the corps of instructors in June.

It is expected that the erection of dormitories will enable the University to furnish accommodations to students at such very cheap rates that the best facilities for education can be extended to those whose resources are limited. It is a cause of just pride to Indiana that such ample opportunities for education are extended to our youth from the primary school to the great University.

We recommend the election of M. H. Mendenhall, T. B. Redding and J. A. S. Mitchell as Trustees; and W. S. Birch, J. K. Walts and J. B. Carns as Visitors.

Fort Wayne College.

The attendance at this institution has been about the same as that of last year. The average attendance is about one hundred and fifty. The total enrollment for the year is about three hundred. A good religious interest prevails among the students A gracious revival of religion, beginning in the Berry Street Church, extended to the College and numbered among the converts about forty of the students, many of whom have been added to the Church.

Pursuant to the action of the Conference at its last session, a partial canvass has been made for funds for the erection of new buildings for the use of the College. The success of the canvass thus far has been gratifying. Something over nine thousand dollars has been subscribed, seven thousand of which are from Fort Wayne. Besides these subscriptions a benevolent lady has promised to provide, by will, for a gift of three thousand dollars.

The whole sum necessary to be raised in order to make the institution creditable to the Church and efficient in the cause of education, is not less than thirty thousand dollars. Your committee recommend that the approach of the one-hundredth anniversary of the organization of the Methodist Church in America be improved to the fullest extent in efforts to place this deserving institution on a basis of permanent prosperity.

We recommend the appointment of W. F. Yocum as President; J. K. Walts, Homer C. Hartman, Lem R. Hartman, Philip Harter and J. I. Metts as Trustees; and C. W. Lynch and C. King as Visitors.

We also recommend the Bishop to appoint M. S. Metts as agent for the College for the ensuing year.

Garrett's Biblical Institute.

We are rejoiced to learn of the continued prosperity of the Institute, and of the satisfactory work of the past year. We recommend the Institute to the young men of the Church who feel called of God to the work of the Christian ministry, that they may add to the discipline acquired in a literary institution the training of this School of the Prophets.

We recommend the Institute to our people as worthy of their support, and respectfully request them to remember it in their gifts and donations.

We recommend that H. N. Herrick and L. A. Retts be appointed Visitors.

Children's Day.

The establishment of a permanent fund, whose income shall be used to assist young men preparing for the ministry, is an object which commends itself to the judgment of all who approve of an educated ministry.

We recommend the faithful observance of Children's Day in all the churches. Respectfully submitted,

W. F. YOCUM, Secretary. J. E. EARP, Chairman.

On DePauw University.

At the last session of the Conference a committee, consisting of W. S. Birch, J. W. Welch, A. Greenman, M. H. Mendenhall, J. E. Earp, A. W. Lamport, J. B. Carns, M. S. Metts, E. F. Hasty and L. A. Retts, were appointed to co-operate with the agent, Rev. J. W. Welch, in the work of securing an enlarged endowment for the Indiana Asbury University. The committee met and elected an executive committee, consisting of W. S. Birch, A. Greenman, J. E. Earp and E. F. Hasty, with authority to direct the general operations within the Conference.

The agent immediately set to work, with the co-operation of the various pastors and other liberal friends. The plan of raising $150,000 in the State by the 1st of August failed. On the 24th day of October, new propositions were agreed upon between Mr. W. C. DePauw and the Trustees of the University, and the essential features of the great enterprise have been conserved.

The DePauw University has been established with prospects of great usefulness in coming years. Within our own Conference the sum of $11,186.93 was reported to the agent, or raised by him, including $8,150 in notes and $3,036.93 in cash. It is estimated that $3,000 were raised and reported directly to the treasurer of the University, making a total for our Conference of $14,186.93. The expenses of the canvass were $1,404.55—somewhat less than ten per cent. of the amount raised or pledged.

When we remember that the work was nearly all accomplished between the first of May and the first of August, we are compelled to say that this outpouring of the liberality of our people is beyond all expectation, and deserves the highest praise. But for the high appreciation of our church, of the cause itself, together with the favor of Divine Providence, so great an undertaking could not have been accomplished.

Your committee, in making this final report of the work intrusted to their hands, desire to express their appreciation of the untiring labors of the agent, Rev. J. W. Welch, to thank the pastors who co-operated in this great work, and especially to give thanks to Almighty God for raising up in our day and generation the princely Christian benefactor, Bro. W. C. De Pauw, and not least of all to the hundreds and thousands of friends who aided according to their means in this worthy cause.

JOHN E. EARP, Secretary. W. S. BIRCH, Chairman.

On Centenary of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Your committee appointed on the subject of the Centennial of Methodism submit the following as their report:

Resolved 1*st*—That we respectfully acknowledge the receipt of the address of the Bishops on the subject of the Centenary of 1884, and recommend the following as the action of the Conference.

Resolved 2*d*—That the Bishop be requested to appoint a Centennial Agent to solicit and receive funds for the objects hereinafter specified.

Resolved 3*d*—That, in accordance with the action of the Conference at its last session, we recommend that the principal object for which the agent shall solicit funds shall be the Fort Wayne College, but that he shall also invite donations to the Preachers' Aid Society, and is authorized to receive gifts for other benevolent objects

Resolved 4*th*—That we recommend that the Presiding Elder and one other person from each district be appointed to co-operate with the agent in arranging for the canvass of that district in behalf of the objects above stated.

Resolved 5*th*—That, as the sum necessary to complete the contemplated buildings for the College is about $30,000, we ask that urgent efforts be made to secure at least that amount.

Resolved 6*th*—That the last Sunday in November and the first three days in December be devoted to a simultaneous effort in behalf of the objects above named; that each preacher be requested to preach on education on Sabbath, and to devote the three secular days to a vigorous canvass for funds.

Resolved 7*th*—That, whereas the Island Park Assembly has invited the Conference to participate in a general Centennial Celebration to be held at Rome City, on July 10, we recommend the preachers and people, so far as possible, to join in that celebration.

Resolved 8*th*—That we recommend the holding of a Centennial Convention in each district during the summer months for the purpose of calling the attention of the people to the growth and prosperity of the Church and its connectional interests; the time and programme to be arranged by the Presiding Elders, and that we request the Presiding Elders to arrange the dates of these meetings so as to allow the agent to be present at each meeting.

Resolved 9*th*—That the Centennial Committee be authorized to form a Centennial Association to further the ends above mentioned, and to arrange such constitution and by-laws as they may deem suitable.

On Temperance.

WHEREAS—The liquor interest, representing less than two per cent. of the voting population of the State of Indiana, in its united strength, has assumed to dictate what shall be the policy upon the liquor question, and is becoming annually more aggressive, a necessity exists for the overthrow and the extermination of the liquor traffic; therefore, be it

Resolved—That we reaffirm what we declared at our last session, that we are most emphatically opposed to the license system in any form.

Resolved—That we are in favor of so amending the Constitution of the State of Indiana, that it shall forever prohibit the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage, and for this we will continue to work and pray.

Resolved—That we hail with gratitude and devout thankfulness to Almighty God the increasing and growing sentiment all over the United States in favor of legal prohibition, and we pledge ourselves to support all proper means to bring about this result.

Resolved—That, inasmuch as our discipline calls for the election of a Temperance Committee annually in every charge, we earnestly request of each Presiding Elder to require a quarterly report of such committee; also, that they recommend to such committees the holding of monthly meetings in the churches, or other places, to have temperance talks, to hear lectures, addresses, essays, or readings on the subject of temperance; to raise funds and distribute temperance literature, so that each of our churches shall become an active power to remove from among us this terrible sin and curse of the iquor traffic.

Resolved—That we recommend the appointment of R. D. Spellman as Temperance Agent of the North Indiana Conference.

Bible Cause.

Your Committe on the Bible Cause would respectfully submit the following report:

There have come into the hands of the Committe, in cash and vouchers, $464.08, being an increase of $121.55 over last year. In view of the great importance of the Bible cause, and its claim upon our attention; therefore—

Resolved—That we will preach on the subject, and will give every charge an opportunity of contributing to its support.

On Freedmen's Aid.

The Committee on Freedmen's Aid Society respectfully submit the following report:

The past year has been one of the most prosperous in the history of the Society. It has raised more money, taught more students, especially of those in advanced classes, erected more and better buildings for educational purposes, and led more souls to Christ during the past year than any year of its history.

The Society is doing a grand work among the most needy classes of our citizens, and is deserving a more liberal support from our people than it has yet received. In view of the pressing needs of the work it asks of no greater liberality. We regret to report a decrease, as compared with last year, in our report of this year. The apportionment to the Conference for the ensuing year is $2,000, or about seven cents per member. In view of the great need of funds for this good work, and that we have good cause to believe that the money raised is being judiciously expended, therefore—

Resolved—That as pastors we will faithfully present this cause to our respective congregations, and urge upon our people still greater liberality.

Resolved—That we will each put forth an earnest effort to raise the amount apportioned to our several charges.

F. T. SIMPSON,
R. TOBY,
W. M. VAN SLYKE,
Committee.

On Tract Cause.

The purest and best literature published by the press of the Methodist Episcopal Church—the Holy Scriptures excepted—is issued in tract form: tracts for men, women, and children in every state and condition of life.

These tracts, if properly used, would be a powerful aid to every minister in pastoral work

We, therefore, earnestly entreat each minister to take a collection for the tract cause early in the Conference year, following the Discipline as a guide in the use of the money.

The collections for the past year from the several charges amounts to $129.30, which amount has been paid to the Book Agent and receipt obtained.

On Observance of the Sabbath.

Whereas, The sanctity of the Sabbath and its holy observance is inseperable from the prosperity and stability of the church; and,

Whereas, There is an alarming tendency among many to wholly disregard the sacredness of the Sabbath day, thereby threatening the peace of society, and even the stability of the republic; therefore—

Resolved, That we, the members of this Conference, do pledge ourselves to put forth an increased effort to persuade the people, by example and precept, by prayers and tears, to "remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy."

Resolved, That, while we rejoice and believe in Camp-meetings and Sunday School Assemblies, and are thankful for the good done by them, yet we utter our earnest protest against, and will withhold our patronage, influence, and presence from all such meetings, where the gates are open and a fee charged for admission on the Sabbath.

Resolved, That obedience to our disciplinary requirements demands of us that no paid entertainments or services, to attend which an admission fee is charged, shall be held or permitted in any of our churches on the Sabbath.

State of the Church.

The Committee on the state of the Church, to whom was referred the circular of Rev. Isaac E Springer, of the Detroit Conference, containing the action of said Conference on the subject of giving to women, in certain cases, license to exhort and preach, recommend the adoption of the following preamble and resolutions, substantially as adopted by the Detroit Annual Conference:

WHEREAS, There is no provision in the Discipline for the licensing of women as exhorters and preachers; and,

WHEREAS, Facts have demonstrated that God has been pleased to place the seal of His sanction upon the ministration of women in the preaching of the Word and public evangelistic work, by granting large results in the salvation of souls; and,

WHEREAS, It is desirable to have the formal economy of the Church, which claims to be the child of Providence, fully harmonize with the past indications of Providence and the custom of early Methodism; and,

WHEREAS, It is occasionally desirable to employ the services of women as evangelists in our home fields, and especially desirable to have the Missionaries of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society legally licensed as exhorters and preachers, to perform the gospel work of evangelism their respective fields demand; therefore—

Resolved, That the ensuing General Conference be and is hereby memorialized to make provisions for the licensing of women as exhorters and preachers, when, as in the case of men, by the tests of gifts, grace, and usefulness, the Church is satisfied that God has called them thereto.

I can not concur in the above recommendation.

Evangelists.

The Select Committee, to which was referred the resolution relating to traveling evangelists, beg leave to report as follows:

WHEREAS, There is an increasing tendency toward the employment of traveling evangelists; and,

WHEREAS, We believe that God is raising up many excellent men and women eminently qualified and spiritually endowed for such work; and,

WHEREAS, There is a probability that unworthy persons, such as Hymenaeus and Philetus, will impose themselves upon us; therefore—

Resolved, By the North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church that, "in order to prevent improper persons from insinuating themselves" into our pulpits, and "in order that we may try those who profess to be moved by the Holy Ghost" to become traveling evangelists among us, the General Conference of 1884 is hereby memorialized to place such restraints upon them as shall compel them to become thoroughly acquainted with our doctrines and discipline, so that they may neither preach nor practice that which is contrary to our doctrines or discipline, and that they may be amenable for their doctrine and deportment to some properly constituted body in the church, and be always subordinate to the pastor in whose charge they shall for the time be employed or residing.

On Periodicals.

We realize that the country is flooded with literature of a questionable character, and that the same has found its way into many homes, even those of Christian families; we find competitors publishing Sunday School literature at professedly reduced rates who are not in sympathy with our Church or its work, but have secular interests in view, and are urging on the people their productions, which are not comparable with ours for research or scholarship. Therefore, we recommend to the members of this Conference, that we discountenance the introduction of such literature, that we use our influence to promote the interests of the Book Concern, and increase the circulation of its wholesome periodicals in all of our charges.

On Appeal of L. C. Harrison.

District Conference Records.

The Committee appointed to examine the records of the District Conferences has performed that duty, and reports that the business of said Conferences has been in accordance with the discipline, and that the journals are neatly and properly kept, except that in some cases there are too many abbreviations.

M. MAHIN,
Committee.

Accounts of the Secretary.

Your Committee, appointed to audit the accounts of C. G. Hudson, as Secretary of North Indiana Conference, desires to say that the committee has carefully done its work. We find his accounts to be correct, and his vouchers satisfactory, with a balance in his favor of $1.73, which we recommend to be carried over to the accounts of next year.

IN MEMORIAM.

NOTE.—The following list includes all the deceased members of the North Indiana Conference since the division of the north half of the State into two Conferences—the North Indiana, and the Northwest Indiana—in 1852.

The roll is made up from the printed minutes.

It is greatly to be regretted that greater care has not been observed in the preparation of the Memoirs, several of which fail even to furnish the items necessary to fill the columns below.

Deceased Members of the North Indiana Conference.

"There is no death! What seems so is transition;
This life of mortal breath
Is but a suburb of the life elysian
Whose portals we call death."

MEMOIRS.

Rev. E. Maynard.

Rev. Ezra Maynard was born in Jefferson County, Ohio, June 5th, 1816, and died in Dunkirk, Ind., November 8th, 1883, aged 67 years, 5 months and 3 days.

His early youth was passed in Ohio, and his attendance at school was principally at Canton. Of his boyhood and youth we have not been able to obtain any particulars. We know that he was converted in early life, after reading Baxter and his quotations, but our brother, himself, was not able to fix the date. In October, 1834, when he was sixteen years old, he became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and in August, 1844, when he was twenty-six, he was licensed to preach. The next year he was received into the North Indiana Conference, at the session at Lafayette. He was ordained Deacon in 1849, by Bishop Janes, and Elder in 1852, by Bishop Baker.

His fields of labor were Alamo, Greenfield, Decatur, Auburn, LaGrange, Covington, Warren, Orland, Baubago, LaGro, Huntington, until, in 1855, on account of failing health, he received a superannuated relation, in which he remained until death, supporting, with all cheerfulness, that relation for twenty-eight years. For twelve years after his superannuation, he engaged in mercantile pursuits, but after 1868 he was not able to transact any business whatever.

Brother Maynard was married June 27th, 1852, to Miss Letitia English in Steuben County, Ind. Two children were given to them. One died in infancy, and the other is a promising young man. Sister Maynard, after thirty-one years of happy married life, now belongs to our honorable list of conference widows.

Brother Maynard always had feeble health, and from the age of fourteen, battled with disease, sometimes prostrated, sometimes able to do full work, but always cheerfully taking things as they came, and ever trying to make the best of them. Nearly all of his life he was afflicted with a cough. When his failing health forced him to leave his loved work of the ministry, he did not sit idly down to repine at his lot, but went bravely to work on a little farm. He declined all aid from the Conference. He soon sold his farm, and removed to Albany, Ind., and opened a store, in which he was quite successful, and where he remained for twelve years. After relinquishing this business, he never had the strength to follow any other pursuit. He was, however, able to attend to his own affairs as long as he lived. For the last three years he was confined at home, and, for the most of the time, to the house.

We are informed that ten years ago no one thought that he could endure another year, but he lingered on from year to year a wonder to himself and all who knew him. For the last year of his life he seldom slept more than a few moments at a time, and that either sitting in his bed or his chair. No one will ever realize how much he suffered. Yet, during it all, he was exceedingly patient, never complaining, but praising the Lord in the midst of all his sufferings. His faith in the promises of God was strong, and he died as he had lived, trusting in Jesus.

All the summer of 1883 he grew weaker and weaker, and on the 1st day of November he was taken with a chill, after which he sank rapidly, and, in a week, on the 8th, he passed away quietly and peacefully as a child going to sleep. He was fully conscious during all his last hours. Although not able to talk much, yet some of his last utterances were, "Tell my brethren and friends that I am ready to depart, and only waiting the Master's call." Again, he said, "Tell my friends that I am ready for the land of bliss."

He was buried at Dunkirk by his pastor, Brother Sawyer.

In his family he was a kind, affectionate husband, and a loving and indulgent father. He was an excellent extempore preacher. He was very punctual in all his engagements, and neither rain, cold nor storm ever prevented him from filling his appointments. As a member of the church he was faithful, active, and liberal, ever giving wise counsels to his pastor, holding up his hands, and aiding in the interests of Zion. As a man he was diligent, patient, meek, submissive to the Divine will, conscientious, holy. He was broad and liberal in all his ideas, free from that narrow bigotry which so often disfigures many characters. He had none of that littleness which sets up individual opinion as the standard for all the world. He had none of that censorious spirit which seeks for motes in others' eyes. He walked humbly with his God, content that other men should enjoy the same liberty that he himself possessed.

He always helped the needy. Many a poor man, struggling to make a home for himself and family, found in our brother a true friend and counselor, and many owed their start in life to his kindly aid. One of the preachers of the Austin Conference to-day is a man whom he aided to obtain his education at Greencastle. He often said that his helping to send out this minister of the gospel gave him the greatest satisfaction of any act that he had ever done in all his life. When he was obliged to leave the active work, he said that he felt that he was as much called to superannuate as he was at first to go forth and preach.

He has left behind him an unblemished record. He was faithful over a few things, and doubtless shall be made ruler over many things. Faithful in his day and generation, he has gone to his reward. He has gone "where the inhabitant shall not say, I am sick."

Rev. J. H. Payton.

Rev. John Hinkle Payton was born in Butler County, Ohio, June 1st, 1814, and died in Champaign County, Illinois, December 14th, 1883, at the age of 69 years, 6 months and 13 days.

While he was yet a child his parents removed to Deleware County, Ind., where he grew to manhood and entered upon the active duties of life work. He was converted at fifteen years of age, on the 29th of June, and united with our Church in September of the same year. While he was yet a youth, the Church gave him license to exhort, of which he made active use. So useful did he become that he was granted license to preach in 1843. He was received on probation in the North Indiana Conference in 1849, at the session at Logansport. He had already been ordained as Local Deacon in 1847 by Bishop Janes. He was ordained Elder by Bishop Ames, at Richmond, in 1853.

He was appointed to the following charges:—1849, Bluffton; 1850, Monmouth; 1851, Auburn; 1852, Allen; 1853-4, Leesburgh; 1855, North Manchester; 1856-7, Columbia City; 1858, Bluffton; 1859, Winchester; 1860, Albany; 1861-2, Farmland; 1863, Muncie Circuit; 1864, Camden. In 1865 he took a superannuated relation, and moved to Henry County, Illinois. In 1866 he served Edwards' Mission, in Illinois, for six months. He supplied Millersburgh for six months in 1867, in the Central Illinois Conference. In 1868 he took an effective relation, and was appointed to Warren Circuit, which he served for six months. His health again failing he was again superannuated In 1869 he organized Pera Circuit in Illinois, afterward known as Ludlow Circuit, which charge he was supplying at the time of his death. He was not content to remain idle, but preached wherever and whenever he could. The last Sabbath that he spent on earth he preached in the village of Ludlow, and administered the sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

He was married to Miss Temperance Dragoo, March 23, 1837, whom he has left behind as his widow, after 46 years of wedded life. Of the thirteen children, who were the fruit of this union, five daughters and one son survive, and seven passed to the other side in advance of their father.

Brother Payton's death was very sudden. Without long sickness or suffering he ceased to work and live. He was stricken down with apoplexy, December 14th, last. He appeared to be in his usual health, arose in the morning and attended to his duties on the farm as usual, held his family services and lead the devotion around the family altar for the last time, and went out into the field. About 9 o'clock he came in and sat by the fire. He was suddenly taken with vomiting and dizziness, lay down, and speedily passed into the deep coma of apoplexy, from which he was never aroused, but in a very short time fell on sleep. His funeral services were held in Rantoul, Rev. F. L. Walden officiating.

Brother Payton's life is his best epitaph. It was such that there was no need of dying testimonies to assure us that he is with Jesus, whom he so faithfully preached. His family speak of him in the most affectionate terms as kind, loving, and indulgent. He was a man of ability, a good extempore preacher, exemplary in all his life, untarnished in character, and devoted to every interest of the Church. He was always faithful in his work, never neglecting his appointments, and always willing and anxious to do what he could for the Master. His death seems almost like a translation. Preaching up to his last Sabbath, administering the blessed emblems of redemption, he heard the voice of the Savior, and laying down his weapons he departed "to be with Christ, which is far better." "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints."

Mrs. W. R. Jordan.

Bessie Kibbey, wife of Rev. W. R. Jordan, of this Conference, died Saturday morning, December 7, 1883, at her home in Trenton, Michigan, aged nearly thirty years.

She was born in Centerville, Ind., April 9, 1854. She was converted and became a member of our church in 1874. Her Christian life was one of beauty. She was of a calm and quiet cast of mind. After her marriage to our brother, she entered heartily into the work of the ministry, and bore bravely and uncomplainingly all the trials and difficulties of the itenerant life; she was faithful in all her relations, and a precious help to her husband. Her daily example was more eloquent than words, so that to all who knew her, her memory will be as the perfume of a sweet flower.

She was faithful and loving as a wife, tender and affectionate as a mother, a true friend, and an intelligent member of society. She was amiable, refined, generous, and unassumingly good. During the pastorate of her husband in Trenton, she taught a class of ten young men in the Sunday School, was a member of the church choir, and was identified with all the interests of the church. Nothing that has transpired in Trenton for years awakened such universal sorrow as her sickness and death.

Her final illness lasted for several days. While her physicians and friends had hope of her recovery until a few hours before her departure, she herself did not believe that she could recover, and talked to her husband calmly and hopefully of the future. In conversation with our brother, she said, "If my religion were a thing of fiction, how could I meet this hour?" Again, she remarked, "It will be hard to leave my family and friends, but I submit all to his will who doeth all things well." To her, Christ was a blessed reality. The nearer she came to the beautiful gate, the more triumphant was her faith. She broke forth into singing, and in a sweet, clear voice, sang, "Rock of ages, cleft for me," and, "I need thee every hour," and, "Triumph by-and-by." In this blessed trust she fell asleep in Jesus.

Her funeral services were held in Richmond, Ind., at the home of her father, Judge J. F. Kibbey. Rev. I. M. Hughes conducted the services, assisted by Rev. F. Craft, Rev. A. W. Lamport, of Richmond, and Rev. Dr. Potter, of Cincinnati. Her remains were laid to rest in the beautiful Earlham Cemetery, to await the resurrection of the just.

As a Conference, we do most heartily and sincerely extend our sympathy and condolence to our dear brother in this the greatest calamity which can befall a man in this world. We pray that the divine grace which he has so often preached to others, may be his abundant stay in these sad hours. May heaven-inspired hope lift up his soul and sustain him with the prospect of a happier day of bright reunion in our Father's house.

GENERAL STATISTICS.

DEAR BRETHREN:

The addition of these tables has been carefully proved by a professional accountant, and the footings are thought to be correct. Wide discrepancies will be observed in some of the matter contained in both tables. The statisticians regret this lack of agreement, but it is impossible to do so with the reports furnished to them. After correcting some eighty per cent. of the reports, yet they were unable to make the additions the same.

If next year the members of the Conference will be careful to make the same items in each table to agree in amount, then greater accuracy may be attained, and the labors of the Secretaries greatly lightened.

C. G. HUDSON, Secretary.
